

An apple for this former teacher,
Sho Dozono

March for Our Schools

When others said it couldn't be done, Sho Dozono, president and chief executive officer of Azumano Travel, mobilized 30,000 citizens to participate in the March for Our Schools. The effort succeeded in raising more than $11 million to save local teaching positions. The 1996 March for Our Schools, organized by the foundation, was the largest demonstration of support for any statewide issue in the history of Oregon.

Azumano Travel
Est. 1949